AFFIDAVIT OF RANDALL S. EISENBERG IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) AND FED. R. BANKR. P. 2014 AND 2016 (I) AUTHORIZING EMPLOYMENT AND RETENTION OF FTI CONSULTING, INC. AS RESTRUCTURING AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS TO DEBTORS AND (II) SCHEDULING FINAL HEARING THEREON

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) SS: COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

Randall S. Eisenberg, being duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:

1. I am a Senior Managing Director with the firm of FTI Consulting, Inc.
(together with its wholly owned subsidiaries, agents, independent contractors, and employees,
"FTI"). I submit this affidavit (the "Affidavit") on behalf of FTI in support of the application
(the "Application")¹ of Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), for interim and final orders under 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2014 and 2016 (a) authorizing the employment and retention of FTI as restructuring and financial advisors for the Debtors under the terms and conditions set forth in the letter agreement attached hereto as

¹ Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Application.

Exhibit B (the "Engagement Letter") and the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Exhibit C and (b) scheduling a final hearing thereon.

2. Except as otherwise noted,² I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein.

Disinterestedness Of Professionals

3. In connection with the preparation of this Affidavit, FTI conducted a review of its contacts with the Debtors, their affiliates, and certain entities holding large claims against or interests in the Debtors that were reasonably known to FTI and provided to us by the Debtors. FTI's review, completed under my supervision, consisted of queries within an internal computer database containing names of individuals and entities. FTI's search included the following types of entities: (a) the Debtors and their affiliates, (b) officers and directors, (c) joint owners of the Debtors' affiliates, (d) the Debtors' 50 largest unsecured creditors (on a consolidated basis), (e) counterparties to major contracts, (f) major lenders, (g) shareholders who own over 5% of the Debtors' shares, (h) professionals, (i) counterparties to major leases, (j) insurance providers, (k) major vendors, (l) major customers, (m) non-Debtor parties to collective bargaining agreements with the Debtors, (n) indenture trustees, (o) underwriters of securities, (p) major litigation parties, and (q) certain state and governmental agencies. A summary of such relationships that FTI identified during the process is set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto.

4. It is FTI's policy and intent to update and expand its ongoing relationship search for additional parties-in-interest in an expedient manner. If any new relevant facts or relationships are discovered or arise, FTI promptly will file a Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a) Supplemental Affidavit.

5. Based on the results of its review, except as otherwise discussed herein, FTI does not have a relationship with any of the parties reviewed in matters related to these proceedings. FTI has provided and could reasonably be expected to continue to provide services unrelated to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases for the various entities shown on Exhibit A. FTI's assistance to these parties has been related to providing various financial restructuring, litigation support, and/or engineering and scientific investigation consulting services unrelated to these chapter 11 cases. To the best of my knowledge, no services have been provided to these parties-in-interest that involve their rights in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, nor does FTI's involvement in this case compromise its ability to continue such consulting services. Nevertheless, in the interest of full disclosure, I point out the following relationships:

- (a) FTI previously has represented JP Morgan Chase in connection with the Debtors' accounts receivable securitizations. There are no on-going services being provided in this regard; and
- (b) the Debtors previously engaged FTI to provide certain services as part of a potential transaction involving the Debtors and a third party. The third party was an intended beneficiary of the services provided. There are no on-going services being provided in this regard.

6. Further, as part of its diverse practice, FTI appears in numerous cases, proceedings, and transactions that involve many different professionals, including attorneys and financial consultants, who may represent claimants and parties-in-interest in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. Also, FTI has performed in the past, and may perform in the future, advisory consulting services for various attorneys and law firms in the legal community, and has been represented by several attorneys and law firms in the legal community, some of whom may be involved in these proceedings. In addition, FTI has in the past, may currently, and will likely in the future be working with or against other professionals involved in these cases in matters unrelated to the Debtors and these cases. Based on our current knowledge of the professionals involved, and to the best of my knowledge, none of these business relationships create interests materially adverse to the Debtors herein in matters upon which FTI is to be employed, and none are in connection with these cases.

7. FTI does not believe it is a "creditor" of any of the Debtors within the meaning of section 101(10) of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, neither I nor any of the FTI engagement team serving the Debtors, to the best of my knowledge, is a holder of any outstanding debt instruments or shares of the Debtors' stock.

8. FTI has not reviewed the relationship that the members of the FTI engagement team may have against a comprehensive list of employees within the U.S. Trustee's office in this District, but will do so upon being provided with a list of such persons by the office of the U.S. Trustee.

9. As such, to the best of my knowledge, FTI believes it is a "disinterested person," as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that, to the best of my information and belief, FTI:

- (a) is not a creditor, an equity security holder, or an insider of the Debtors;
- (b) is not and was not an investment banker for any outstanding security of the Debtors;
- (c) has not been within three years before the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, an investment banker for a security of the Debtors, or an attorney for such investment banker in connection with the offer, sale, or issuance of a security of the Debtors; and
- (d) was not, within two years before the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, a director, officer, or employee of the

Debtors or of any investment banker as specified in subparagraphs (b) or (c) of this paragraph.

10. In addition, to the best of my knowledge and based upon the results of the relationship search described above, and as set forth herein, FTI believes it neither holds nor represents an interest adverse to the Debtors within the meaning of section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

11. FTI has not provided, and will not provide, any professional services to any of the creditors, other parties-in-interest, or their respective attorneys and accountants with regard to any matter directly related to these chapter 11 cases, except as disclosed or otherwise described herein. If and when additional information becomes available with respect to any other relationships that may exist between FTI and the Debtors, creditors or any other parties-in-interest that may affect these cases, supplemental affidavits describing such information shall be filed with this Court.

Professional Compensation

12. Subject to court approval and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, applicable U.S. Trustee guidelines, and the local rules of this District, FTI will seek payment for compensation on an hourly basis for the services outlined in the Application, plus reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred by FTI. FTI's customary hourly rates as charged in bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy matters of this type by the professionals assigned to this engagement are outlined in the Engagement Letter. These hourly rates are adjusted annually. In addition to the hourly rates and subject to the approval of this Court, the Debtors will consider, in their sole discretion, a value-added fee at the conclusion of FTI's engagement that would be based upon FTI's contribution to the successful restructuring of the Debtors.

13. According to FTI's books and records, during the 90-day period prior to the Debtors' petition date, FTI received approximately $3.7 million from the Debtors for professional services performed and expenses incurred. Further, FTI has received unapplied advance payments from the Debtors in excess of prepetition billings in the amount of $525,000. The Debtors and FTI have agreed that any portion of the unapplied advance payments not used to compensate FTI for its prepetition services and expenses will be held and applied against its final postpetition billing and will not be placed in a separate account.

14. To the best of my knowledge (a) no commitments have been made or received by FTI with respect to compensation or payment in connection with these cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) FTI has no agreement with any other entity to share with such entity any compensation received by FTI in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

Re: Delphi Corporation -- Financial Advisory Services

Dear Mr. Butler:

1. Introduction

This letter confirms that we, FTI Consulting, Inc. ("FTI"), have been retained by you, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP ("Skadden"), to provide certain financial advisory and consulting services (the "Services") set out below, to Delphi Corporation and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company") as intended third party beneficiaries hereof (herein, "you," "your" and related terms will refer to the Company, "we," "our" and "us" and related terms will refer to FTI). This letter of engagement (the "Engagement") and the related Standard Terms and Conditions constitute the engagement contract (the "Engagement Contract") pursuant to which such Services will be provided.

2. Scope of Services

At Skadden's direction, the scope of services to be performed will be related to assisting the Company in its restructuring efforts that the Company requests from time to time. The Services, as outlined above, are subject to change as mutually agreed between us.

FTI is engaged by Skadden to provide financial advisory and consulting services only. Accordingly, while we may from time to time suggest options which may be available to Skadden or the Company, and further give our professional evaluation of these options, the ultimate decision as to which, if any, of these options to implement rests with the Company, its management and board of directors. FTI and its employees will not make any management decisions for the Company and will not be responsible for communicating information concerning the Company to the public, the Company's shareholders or others.

As part of our Services, FTI may be requested by Skadden to assist the Company (and its legal or other advisors) in negotiating with the Company's creditors and equity holders and with other interested parties. In the event that we participate in such negotiations, the representations made and the positions advanced will be those of the Company and its management, not FTI or its employees.

Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP
As of August 1, 2005

3. Fees

Fees in connection with this Engagement will be based upon the time incurred providing the Services, multiplied by our standard hourly rates, summarized as follows:

	Per Hour
Senior Managing Directors	$580 - 630
Directors / Managing Directors	440 - 560
Associates / Consultants	235 - 385
Paraprofessionals	95 - 168

Hourly rates are generally revised periodically. We will notify Skadden and the Company and obtain the Company's concurrence in advance of any such changes to our rates with respect to any rate increase for 2005 and any annual rate increase thereafter in excess of 5% of the then applicable hourly rates. Note that we do not provide any assurance regarding the outcome of our work and our fees will not be contingent on the results of such work. In addition to the hourly rates and subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court in the event that a chapter 11 case is commenced, the Company agrees to consider, in its sole discretion, a value-added fee at the conclusion of the Engagement that would be based upon our contribution to the successful restructuring of the Company.

In addition to the fees outlined above and consistent with the Company's reimbursement guidelines provided to FTI by the Company concurrently with execution of this Agreement, FTI will bill for reasonable expenses which are likely to be incurred on your behalf during this Engagement, including, but not limited to, airfare, meals, hotel accommodations, telephone, industry research, duplicating and printing (at not more than $0.10 per page), etc. FTI will not charge any markup, overhead, profit or other fees on the reimbursable expenses.

Based on our initial understanding of the matter and our scope of work, our retainer in this matter has been sized at $300,000. The retainer, which is to be paid by the Company upon the execution of this Engagement Contract, is typically held and applied to our final bill for the Services, with any excess amounts refunded to the Company. We reserve the right, however, to apply the retainer to our fees as the Engagement proceeds. The retainer is not intended to be an estimate for the total cost of the work to be performed. We may request an increase to this retainer depending upon the level of services provided and course to be taken to implement the restructuring. On or prior to September 9, 2005, FTI agrees to provide an estimate of project fees to be incurred by the Company in connection with the Engagement by project category and engagement phase.

Invoices for fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Engagement will be billed weekly, and are due upon receipt by wire transfer. If we do not receive payments accordingly, we shall be entitled, without prejudice to any other rights that we may have, to immediately suspend provision of the Services until all sums due are paid in full. In no event shall Skadden be liable for any of our invoices in connection with the Engagement.

Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP
As of August 1, 2005

4. Terms and Conditions

The attached Standard Terms and Conditions, set forth the duties of each party with respect to the Services. Further, this letter and the Standard Terms and Conditions attached comprise the entire Engagement Contract for the provision of the Services to the exclusion of any other express or implied terms, whether expressed orally or in writing, including any conditions, warranties and representations, and shall supersede all previous proposals, letters of engagement, undertakings, agreements, understandings, correspondence and other communications, whether written or oral, regarding the Services.

5. Conflicts of Interest

Based on the list of interested parties (the "Potentially Interested Parties"), provided by Skadden and the Company, we have undertaken a limited review of our records to determine FTI's professional relationships with the Company and its stakeholders. As the Company is aware, FTI is regularly retained by the administrative agent and/or other members of the Company's lending group (or law firms retained by the administrative agent or lending group members). However, during the term of this engagement, such representations will only be in matters unrelated to the Company. In addition, FTI has previously represented JP Morgan Chase in connection with the Company's accounts receivables securitizations. Based upon our review, FTI has not been engaged to represent any other client over the past twelve months in relation to the Company, except to the extent that our representation of another client has incidentally related to Delphi on an indirect basis and was not material to the scope of the particular engagement. Should the Company become a debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, FTI agrees to provide services to the Company until its retention is approved or our Services are fully transitioned to another firm irrespective of whether we are compensated for such services and notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement.

From the results of such review, we are not aware of any conflicts of interest or additional relationships that we believe would preclude us from performing the Services. As you know, we are a large consulting firm with numerous offices throughout the United States. We are regularly engaged by new clients, which may include one or more of the Potentially Interested Parties. However, we will not accept an engagement that directly conflicts with this Engagement without your prior written consent.

6. Personnel

Randall Eisenberg and I will coordinate all engagement matters on behalf of FTI and we agree to make a substantial portion of time available for the engagement. We have agreed to the Company's request that, to the extent practicable under the circumstances and exigencies facing the Company, we will staff the engagement with a working group of professionals that are prepared to commit a concentrated effort to the engagement as the Company believes that there are efficiencies of identification with, and dedication to the engagement. We have also agreed to provide Skadden and the Company with an organizational chart of professionals assigned to the engagement and to promptly update the organizational chart as to any changes in staffing as to which we agree to consult with and obtain the concurrence of the Company.

Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP
As of August 1, 2005

All of FTI's agents and employees furnished by FTI to perform the Services (collectively, "Personnel") are and will remain FTI's employees and, under no circumstances, will any Personnel furnished by FTI be deemed to be Company's employees. FTI is solely responsible, at FTI's sole cost and expense, for (i) the fulfillment of all obligations to Personnel and (ii) the compliance by FTI and Personnel with this Agreement and all laws, regulations, orders and other governmental requirements applicable to performance of the Services.

FTI will require all Personnel who are performing any work on the Company's premises to comply with all of the Company's regulations and policies as provided in writing by the Company to FTI. The Company, in its sole discretion, has the right to: (a) bar any of Personnel from the Company's premises for failure to observe the Company's regulations or policies, (b) require that FTI promptly remove from the Company's premises any Personnel who violate any of the Company's regulations or policies, and (c) require that FTI cease using any Personnel to perform the services who are reasonably unacceptable to the Company. The Company will confer with FTI to discuss the Company's concerns prior to requiring removal of any Personnel. FTI will replace any barred or removed Personnel with Personnel reasonably acceptable to the Company.

STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following are the Standard Terms and Conditions on which we will provide the Services to you set forth within the attached letter of engagement dated as of August 1, 2005. The Engagement letter and the Standard Terms and Conditions (collectively the "Engagement Contract") form the entire agreement between us relating to the Services and replace and supersede any previous proposals, letters of engagement, undertakings, agreements, understandings, correspondence and other communications, whether written or oral, regarding the Services. The headings and titles in the Engagement Contract are included to make it easier to read but do not form part of the Engagement Contract.

1. Reports and Advice

- 1.1 Reliance on drafts – You acknowledge that no reliance shall be placed on draft reports, conclusion or advice, whether oral or written, issued by us as the same may be subject to further work, revision and other factors which may mean that such drafts are substantially different from any final report or advice issued.
- 1.2 Our responsibility for final reports – In the event we will be acting as independent experts, our reports or advice must be objective and impartial. While we will be prepared to discuss draft reports, which do not constitute our final opinion, the content of our final report is a matter for us alone.
- 1.3 Use and purpose of advice and reports – Any advice given or report issued by us is provided solely for the use and benefit of Skadden and the Company and only in connection with the purpose in respect of which the Services are provided. Unless required by law, the Company shall not provide any advice given or report issued by us to any third party, or refer to us or the Services, without our prior written consent (which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). In no event, regardless of whether consent has been provided, shall we assume any responsibility to any third party to which any advice or report is disclosed or otherwise made available.

2. Information and Assistance

- 2.1 Provision of information and assistance – Our performance of the Services is dependent upon the Company providing us with such information and assistance as we may reasonably require from time to time.
- 2.2 Punctual and accurate information – The Company's personnel shall use reasonable skill, care and attention to ensure that all information we may reasonably require is provided on a timely basis and is accurate and complete and relevant for the purpose for which it is required. The Company shall also notify us if you subsequently learn that the information provided is incorrect or inaccurate or otherwise should not be relied upon.
- 2.3 No assurance on financial data – While our work may include an analysis of financial and accounting data, the Services will not include an audit, compilation or review of any kind of any financial statements or components thereof. Company management will be responsible for any and all financial information they provide to us during the course of this Engagement, and we will not examine or compile or verify any such financial information. Moreover, the circumstances of the Engagement may cause our advice to be limited in certain respects based upon, among other matters, the extent of sufficient and available data and the opportunity for supporting investigations in the time period. Accordingly, as part of this Engagement, we will not express any opinion or other form of assurance on financial statements of the Company.

- 2.4 Prospective financial information - In the event the Services involve prospective financial information, our work will not constitute an examination or compilation, or apply agreed-upon procedures, in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants or otherwise, and we will express no assurance of any kind on such information. There will usually be differences between estimated and actual results, because events and circumstances frequently do not occur as expected, and those differences may be material. We will take no responsibility for the achievability of results or events projected or anticipated by the management of the Company.
3. Additional Services
- 3.1 Responsibility for other parties - You shall be solely responsible for the work and fees of any other party engaged by you to provide services in connection with the Engagement regardless of whether such party was introduced to you by us. Except as provided in this Engagement Contract, we shall not be responsible for providing or reviewing the advice or services of any such third party, including advice as to legal, regulatory, accounting or taxation matters. Further, we acknowledge that we are not authorized under our Engagement Contract to engage any third party to provide services or advice to Skadden or the Company without Skadden's and the Company's written authorization.
4. Confidentiality
We acknowledge a separate Confidentiality Agreement will be entered into (the "Confidentiality Agreement") setting forth obligations with respect to confidential information.
5. Termination
- 5.1 Termination of Engagement with notice - You may terminate the Engagement Contract for whatever reason upon written notice to us. Upon receipt of such notice, we will stop all work immediately but the Company will be responsible for all fees and expenses incurred by us through the date termination notice is received.
- 5.2 Continuation of terms - The terms of the Engagement that by their context are intended to be performed after termination or expiration of this Engagement Contract, including but not limited to, Clauses 3 and 4 of the Engagement letter, and Clauses 1.3, 6 and 7 of the Standard Terms and Conditions, are intended to survive such termination or expiration and shall continue to bind all parties.
6. Liability Limitation; Waiver of Jury Trial
- 6.1 Limitation of liability - The Company agrees that FTI and any of its subsidiaries and affiliates, officers, directors, shareholders, agents, employees, subcontractors and/or independent contractors furnished by FTI to perform the Services (collectively, "Personnel") shall not have any liability to the Company or to any third party claim as a result of Skadden's retention of FTI, the execution and delivery of this Engagement Contract, the provision of Services or other matters relating to or arising from this Engagement Contract, other than liabilities that shall have been determined by a final non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of FTI or its Personnel in respect of whom such liability is asserted or as otherwise set forth herein or in a separate document. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in no event shall FTI or its Personnel be liable for consequential, indirect or punitive damages, damages for lost profits or opportunities or other like damages or claims of any kind.

- 6.2 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL -TO FACILITATE JUDICIAL RESOLUTION AND SAVE TIME AND EXPENSE, THE COMPANY AND FTI IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY AGREE NOT TO DEMAND A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE SERVICES OR ANY SUCH OTHER MATTER.
7. Governing Law and Jurisdiction-The Engagement Contract shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the choice of law provisions thereof. The United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and the appropriate Courts of the State of New York sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York shall have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to any claim, dispute or difference concerning the Engagement Contract and any matter arising from it. The parties submit to the jurisdiction of such Courts, and irrevocably waive any right they may have to object to any action being brought in these Courts, to claim that the action has been brought in an inconvenient forum or to claim that those Courts do not have jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company shall become a debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Court having jurisdiction over the administration of the Company's bankruptcy cases shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the Engagement Contract and all references to other courts in this paragraph shall be deemed to be apply to the Bankruptcy Court only.

Dispute Resolution Procedures

The following procedures shall be used to resolve any controversy or claim ("dispute") as provided in this Agreement. If any of these provisions are determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect and binding the parties to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Mediation

A dispute shall be submitted to mediation by written notice to the other party or parties. In the mediation process, the parties will try to resolve their differences voluntarily with the aid of an impartial mediator, who will attempt to facilitate negotiations. The mediator will be selected by agreement of the parties. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, a mediator will be designated by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or JAMS/Endispute at the request of a party. Any mediator so designated must be acceptable to all parties.

The mediation will be conducted as specified by the mediator and agreed upon by the parties. The parties agree to discuss their differences in good faith and to attempt, with the assistance of the mediator, to reach an amicable resolution of the dispute.

The mediation will be treated as a settlement discussion and therefore will be confidential. The mediator may not testify for either party in any later proceeding relating to the dispute. No recording or transcript of shall be made of the mediation proceedings.

Each party will bear its own costs in mediation. The fees and expenses of the mediator will be shared equally by the parties.

Arbitration

If a dispute has not been resolved within 90 days after the written notice beginning the mediation process (or a longer period, if the parties agree to extend the mediation), the mediation shall terminate and the dispute will be settled by arbitration and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitration may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitration will be conducted in accordance with the procedures in this document and the Arbitration Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes of the AAA ("AAA Rules").
